

BURWARTON BURN 5K AND 10K TRAIL RUN

DISCLAIMER

I am an amateur as defined by U.K.A. and agree to abide by its rules. I will participate only if I am fit to run the distance selected. I will not hold responsible the race organiser or any person or body involved in the organisation of the event, for any injury or illness resulting from the event.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

On entry to the Burwarton Burn runs, participants agree to the following terms;

The event is held under the rules and regulations as set out by United Kingdom Athletics (“UKA”) and you confirm you will abide by these rules.

You are fully aware of the potential and actual risks associated with participation in this event and that on event day you are medically fit to take part.

You participate entirely at your own risk and agree not to take part if you are unwell or injured.

You agree not to hold the organisers, marshals, volunteers, sponsors or any associated company or organisation working within the framework of the event (to the extent permitted by law) liable for any personal injury, sickness or accident suffered, nor the loss of any property on the course, or on the showground.

You understand that the entry fee is non-refundable.

Transferring your entry to another runner will not be accepted. If you are unable to run and we can fill the space from a wait list before 24th July then your entry can be transferred. No transfers will be possible after the 24th July. By transferring your entry to a new runner, the new runner will be agreeing to these Terms and Conditions of entry.

No runners under the age of 18 are able to participate.

RULES RELEVANT TO THE DAY OF THE EVENT

All runners must register their attendance on the day at the secretaries’ tent located by the main ring from 5.15pm – 6.15pm where they will collect their race number before the start of the event. Spectators can access the showground from 5.15pm free of charge, if they wish to stay after the run and enter the members marquee then a fee of £5 will be charged for a wristband, this can only be bought during the registration time before the race, and can only be purchased at the secretaries’ tent.

All runners must attend the race briefing to be held 10 minutes before the race start. The briefing will give additional safety and course information and is compulsory for all participants. This will take place in the main ring.

You must complete personal details, including any health issues and medication on all relevant paperwork/online bookings.

Ensure your race number is worn at all times and is clearly visible for the duration of the race.

Agree to and follow any instructions given by event officials / marshals

You agree to not drop litter on the course and use the bins provided on the main show site or bins that are located on the course. All participants seen to be littering the course will be disqualified.

You agree to keep to the marked route in order to minimise environmental damage and also to ensure you are not running on crops.

Any participant who retires during the event must inform their nearest marshal of their withdrawal. The marshal will report back to HQ.

The wearing of music devices or devices requiring headphones is permitted at the participants own risk. However, we reserve the right to amend this term without notice if it is required by UKA or if we determine it is required to minimise any risk for participants or members of the public.

OTHER RULES

By entering all participants have expressly given their permission for photographs or films to be taken during the event and hereby have given permission and the right to Burwarton and District Agricultural society to use such media for publicity or to promote future events.

Burwarton and District Agricultural society reserves the right to alter or amend race information or rules before the event and publish any changes.

In the unlikely event that the event has to be cancelled, delayed or postponed due to circumstances outside of our control, such as extreme weather or instruction from Emergency Services, no refunds will be payable.
