ADDITIONAL RULES FOR CATTLE AND SHEEP EXHIBITORS - 2026

1. All classes are open except where stated and all stock must be from TB and Brucellosis Accredited Herds. In addition, cattle must be either (i) from a certified BVD Accredited Herd (ii) the herd must have undergone a negative BVD Antigen test plus BVD vaccination. Veterinary Certification of the above BVD status is required with the entry form. In addition, for 2026 Cattle must also be at Level 1 or 2 for Johnes as part of a CHECS Scheme. Veterinary Certification of the above is required with the entry form.
2. Separate penning for MV accredited flocks and scrapie monitored flocks. A valid MV Health Status Form must be presented for inspection before unloading in the MV accredited area on the Show day. If this is not available then as per the scheme rules, the stock may be refused entry or segregated. This will be at the sole discretion of the Chief Sheep Steward. The Show has to retain this form in line with current scheme rules and submit to the scheme organisers. Please enclose a copy of the valid MV Health Status Form with your entry form. NB: Please ensure you have indicated on your form whether you are scrapie monitored.

3. All cattle and sheep must be on the Show field by 8.45am.

4. On arrival to the showground, all cattle and sheep shall be inspected by the veterinary officer acting on behalf of the Show. No livestock may leave its means of transport until such inspection has taken place.

5. Any animal showing signs of sickness shall be isolated and shall be inspected by the Show's Veterinary surgeon. If the animal is suspected of showing signs of a notifiable disease then APHA will be contacted.

6. In the event of a suspected or confirmed case of a notifiable disease, it will be necessary to isolate the suspected animal[s] and other animals from the same holding. It will also be necessary for such animal[s] to remain on the showfield for a period up to 4 days pending the results of a test taken by the APHA veterinary on show day. It will be the responsibility of the Exhibitor/Owner to arrange a supply of feed and bedding during that period and to remain on site with their animal[s].

7. The Biosecurity Officers (Chief Stewards) and Show Stewards have the authority to deny access to the showground to any exhibitor/livestock handler who arrives in dirty clothing and does not have a change of clothes/footwear.

8. All exhibitors/livestock handlers must use the disinfectant footbath on passing through the cattle and sheep areas; these areas to be signed appropriately by the Show.

9. Vehicles transporting sheep and cattle to the Show must stay parked in the animal areas of the showground once livestock have been unloaded for the duration of the Show.

10. No vehicle which is visibly contaminated with animal excreta shall be authorised onto the showground.

11. The Show shall provide sufficient facilities for Judges, Stewards, Exhibitors and livestock handlers to use when they need to change their protective clothing, wash their hands, disinfect their footwear or dispose of protective clothing within the animal areas.

12. The animal areas shall mean the area for judging, penning of sheep and tethering of cattle, unloading and loading of sheep and cattle and the parking of vehicles transporting the same.

13. The Exhibitor shall supply the name and address of all livestock handlers assisting the exhibitor in showing livestock at the Show so that they may be traced in the event of a suspected or confirmed notifiable disease.

14. The Exhibitor shall [on the entry form] provide the passport number/ ear tag of all livestock being exhibited at the Show for tracing purposes in the event of a suspected or confirmed notifiable disease.

15. Entry to the Show sheep classes is not restricted to pedigree sheep, however special prizes are subject to confirmation and may be subject to restriction.

16. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to ensure that any handler of livestock is of suitable experience, age and physical capability to be in charge of the animal. Any junior exhibitors who lead livestock in the grand parade must be accompanied by a competent adult who is NOT handling other animals. Use of mobile phones etc is prohibited when leading animals in the grand parade.

Thank you for noting these conditions, which have enabled Kingsbridge Show to obtain a licence to permit the exhibition of livestock.
