Privacy Policy

The Royal Cornwall Agricultural Association privacy policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, that you provide to us or that we may receive from others about you will be processed by us. It includes data that we hold electronically and in paper files.

Results information may be published (in printed form and online) and provided to the Press and Breed Societies for publication. Information relating to Exhibitors and their animals may be provided to Department of Environment, Fisheries and Rural Affairs (DEFRA), Trading Standards, Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA), British Cattle Movement Service (BCMS), SAC, Breed Societies, County Councils, Veterinary Advisors and others who have regulatory access.

Please see our website www.royalcornwall.co.uk for full details of our Privacy Policy.

General

Risk and Responsibility

The entire risk and responsibility as regards all Exhibits both whilst at the Show and during transit and all consequential or other injury or loss arising therefrom must be wholly borne by the Exhibitor.

Compensation

The Association will not be in any way liable or responsible to any Exhibitor, Purchaser, Stockperson, Attendant or Visitor for any claim or loss or injury or compensation occasioned by or arising out of the holding of their Shows or by reason of the act or default of any Exhibitor, Purchaser, Visitor, Stockperson, or other person in attendance or present thereat nor will the Association be liable or responsible to any such person if for any reason the Show is abandoned.

Accidents

The Association will not be responsible for any accident that may be occasioned by or occur from any animal or equipment belonging to any Exhibitor and it is a condition of entry that each Exhibitor shall hold the Association harmless and indemnified against any legal proceedings arising from any accident caused by their animal or equipment or arising in any way from or out of the Exhibition of their property.

Disclaimer of Liability

In this clause the term Exhibitor shall include persons taking part in any competition or display arranged by the Show Committee, and the owner of any animal, plant, machinery or other thing involved in any such competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the Showground. Save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Committee, its servants or agents, the Committee will not be responsible for death, injury, disease, damage or loss caused to any exhibitor or to his or her stockperson or agent or to any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought onto the Showground by the said exhibitor from whatever cause death, injury, disease, damage or loss arises. (Save as aforesaid) the exhibitor shall indemnify the Committee against all claims, damages and expenses whatsoever in any way arising out of the presence of the exhibitor, his stockpersons, agents, exhibits, vehicles or equipment on the Showground and shall assume full responsibility therefore. Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be a condition of entry.

Exhibitors are advised to insure against fire and other appropriate risk not only as regards their own property but also against any third party claim.

Conditions of Admittance and Car Parking

Persons are admitted to the Showground at their own risk and whilst every endeavour is taken to ensure their safety, the Committee will not (save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Committee, its servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss of or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expenses howsoever caused.

Persons are admitted entry to the show car parks/showground at their own risk and vehicles and their accessories and contents are admitted to and left in the show car parks/showground at the owner's risk, and whilst every endeavour is taken to ensure the safety thereof, the Committee will not (save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Committee, its servants or agents) be responsible for personal injury (whether fatal or otherwise) loss of or damage to property and any other loss, damage, costs and expenses howsoever caused.

Ownership

Every Exhibit must be the bonafide property of the Exhibitor both at the time of entry and on the first day of the Exhibition.

Entry Forms and Entry Fees

Every Exhibitor or Competitor is requested to examine carefully the Schedule and the Bye-Laws and Regulations.

All exhibitors must ensure they have adequate Public Liability Insurance cover.

Exhibitors may only enter a maximum of three animals in any one class.

Every Exhibitor or Competitor will be held responsible for the correctness of their entry. If, when called upon to prove its correctness, they fail to do so, the entry in question will not be accepted or if already accepted, may be cancelled or the exhibit may be disqualified and any Award made to it cancelled and furthermore all Awards made to such an Exhibitor or Competitor in any class may be cancelled.

All persons entering, competing or exhibiting an animal of a class covered by a Breed Society either to which the Association is affiliated or which is affiliated to the Association shall be deemed to have consented to the jurisdiction of the relevant Breed Society and be subject to its constitution and rules (including disciplinary procedures) insofar as they are applicable to any event, competition or display promoted or arranged by the Association.

The Association would deem the Breed Societies to be responsible for the enforcement of their own Breed Society rules.

The Association reserves the right to share all names and addresses of all exhibitors with breed societies and other similar bodies in connection with the staging of the young handler day.

Entry fees shall not be returnable except in the following cases:-

(a) they will be refunded in the event of cancellation of classes or a DEFRA Order prohibiting the exhibition of animals at the Cornwall Young Handler day.

(b) in the case of an animal incapacitated by accident, injury or illness. Any claim under this clause must be made in writing to the Secretary and must be accompanied by a certificate issued by a Veterinary Surgeon and to be received not later than Wednesday 18th August 2021. ANY CLAIM RECEIVED AFTER 18TH AUGUST 2021 WILL BE INVALID.

The entry fee is not returnable to an Exhibitor who enters an Animal in a class for which it is ineligible or not registered.

Closing of Entries

The last day on which entries can be accepted is Wednesday 18th August 2021.

Exhibitors

All Exhibitors and their assistants shall be subject to the Orders and Rules of the Council or Officials appointed by the Council. The Council reserves the right to ban from exhibiting, either in person or through a nominee or agent, any exhibitor (or their assistants), who, in the opinion of the Council, contravenes or has contravened any of the Association's Bye-Laws, Regulations or anyone infringing the Regulations and Conditions of the Association and who behaves noisily or offensively to the Judges or Officials is liable to be disqualified and any award cancelled and, furthermore all awards made to such an Exhibitor or Competitor in any class may be cancelled, and such person shall thereupon be excluded from exhibiting in this Association during the pleasure of the Council. Such matters will be determined by a Committee as detailed in regulation 12. The Council reserves to itself the right to inform other Agricultural Associations or Breed or other Societies of any decision it may come to with respect to any exhibitor.

Grooms / attendants appearing with animals in judging rings must be of smart appearance and dressed appropriately for the section being judged. It is the Exhibitors responsibility to ensure that the correct number is worn in the relevant class and the Association accepts no responsibility for errors caused by incorrect numbers being displayed.

All Exhibitors must have the physical ability, relevant experience and be competent to handle the animal they are in charge of at all times. Handlers must be properly trained in safe work methods and be in good health. Judges / Stewards are empowered to ask an exhibitor to leave a ring or any other area on the grounds of safety if they feel that the exhibitor is incapable of safely handling / riding the exhibit in question.

Animal Welfare – The Royal Cornwall Agricultural Association expects all exhibitors to observe best practice at all times.

Penalties

Every exhibitor shall indemnify the Association against all actions, claims, proceedings and demands by any person, company or other representative body of whatsoever nature in respect of any matter, directly or indirectly connected with the bringing onto the Association's Showground of any animal which may have been suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or which develops such a disease whilst on the Showground and in addition the exhibitor shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Association in connection with any such claim. The Association's Veterinary Officers are authorised to refuse permission for any animal to be admitted to, or to have removed from, the Showground any animals affected with contagious or infectious disease or with disease which, in their opinion, was likely to prove dangerous to other animals. The owner or stockperson in charge of such animal may obtain, if desired, a certificate in writing from the Association's Veterinary Officer, stating the nature of such disease or infection. Concealment of disease will render the exhibitor liable to disqualification in accordance with regulation 9. The Stewards, on the recommendation of the Association's Veterinary Officers shall have the power to remove from the Showground any unruly, vicious, deformed or diseased animals, and also the stock, implements or miscellaneous articles belonging to any exhibitor who refuses to comply with the instructions given to them by the Stewards without any responsibility attaching to them or to the Association in consequence of such removal.

Arrival and Departure of Exhibitors and behaviour whilst at the Show

All persons in charge of exhibits will be subject to the orders of the Stewards and will be required to parade or exhibit the animals in their charge at such times as may be directed by the Stewards. Stewards have the right to exclude from the Judging Rings and/or the Showground any animal which is vicious or unruly. Owners of the Animals exhibited will be held responsible for the behaviour of their assistants and for the consequences of any misconduct of such assistants. No Exhibitor or their assistants must in any way inappropriately interfere with exhibits other than their own.

Tampering and Malpractice

The Association will not tolerate the administration to show exhibits (entered either for competition or sale/demonstration) of tranquillisers or other drugs which may in any way affect the performance of the animal in question to have the effect of making it behave in the show ring in a manner which is not natural. The Association reserves the right to take any necessary samples. Any Person or Exhibitor (or his representative) who is found to have administered or permitted the administration of any such tranquilliser or drugs to any Show exhibit will be reported to the Committee, and dealt with at their discretion. In addition the matter will be referred to the appropriate Breed Society or Organisation.

Regulations Applying to Certain Classes

The Organisers of this show have taken reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, everyone must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organisers and all the Officials and Stewards.

Dogs

Well behaved dogs are allowed but must be kept on a lead at all times.

Rules & Regulations

Licensing, Documentation, Movements & Testing

Animals entering the showground must present the following documents on arrival and adhere to the following rules:

Cattle

- BCMS Passport, this applies to all cattle, including calves, for show or exhibition. The Royal Cornwall Agricultural Association will electronically record all movements onto and off the Showground. Barcode labels will be placed on the movement summary page. Exhibitors wishing to have inside stalling are required to comply with current TB regulations, otherwise all stalling will be outside. For those cattle coming from one and two year testing parishes please note it is a requirement that the animals at the show are tested within 60 days before this show. Compliance with pre-movement testing requirements is the responsibility of the owner/cattle keeper moving the animal(s). Full details can be found on the following government website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/bovine-tb-information-notes>
- An animal accepted for entry must not be consigned to the Cornwall Young Handlers day if, after entry, either it or the herd to which it belongs becomes subject to movement restrictions.
- Any animal which shows evidence of ringworm should not be sent to the Show.
- All Cattle must be properly secured to the satisfaction of the Officials of the Association on being brought to the entrance of the Showground or they may not be admitted. Whilst stalled at the show it is suggested that all cattle are double tied.
- Livestock must be under the control of a competent handler at all times and they must use approved restraints which are safe and fit for purpose.

Sheep

- ARAMS-1 Movement Form, applies to all sheep for show or exhibition.
- Maedi Visna, a completed SAC Sheep Health Scheme Certificate (which has not expired), will also be collected. Maedi Visna accredited and Scrapie Monitored accommodation will only be provided for sheep which have been signified as being of such status on the entry form. In order to be admitted to the accredited accommodation, all Maedi Visna accredited sheep must be accompanied by the appropriate SAC Form (green) – within expiry date. Scrapie Monitored sheep will be accommodated and shown in unsegregated conditions.

- Exhibitors are specially cautioned not to send to the Show animals which are suffering from Orf in any stage.
- Current legislation The Mutilations (Permitted Procedures) (England) Regulations 2007 Schedule 5.5 requires that sheep must have sufficient tail retained to cover the vulva of the female sheep and the anus of the male sheep.
- Sheep entered for the Cornwall Young Handlers 2021 day are liable to be inspected in the lines by the Association's Veterinary Officers or other appropriate official bodies. Any sheep which do not comply with the aforementioned regulation will not be eligible to be shown.
- The spraying of sheep with any substances is forbidden.

Pigs

- Pig movements will either have to be reported using the free eAML2 online service or the free eAML2 bureau service. The person in charge of such pigs must carry a copy of the declaration throughout the movement and also send a copy of the declaration to the Local Authority within 7 days and ensure that the conditions relating to such movement are adhered to. Movement of pigs from a farm for breeding, exhibition, artificial insemination or veterinary treatment. The Pigs (Records, Identification and Movement) Order 2011. Exhibitors bringing pigs to the Cornwall Young Handlers 2021 day will need to complete a declaration relating to their movement in accordance with the above Order. On return, the pigs will have to be kept separate from all other pigs for a period of 20 days.
- The use of artificial colouring, whitening and/or powder on pigs as well as the removal or addition of spots by artificial means is prohibited (white wood flour is permitted).

Goats

- The Goat Section will be run in accordance with the regulations governing shows as issued by DEFRA.
- Exhibitors will be responsible for the reporting of movements off and back onto their holding.
- In addition CAE Accredited Stock must be accompanied by a current valid Green SAC Certificate of accreditation, within expiry date (this must not run out before the duration of the Show), signed, dated and Destination of Animals completed by the Exhibitor. A list of up to 10 animals may be recorded on the form.
- AML 1 Licence, applies to all goats for show or exhibition. After completion, on arrival at the Goat Section, the Association will retain the white and pink copies on entry (the white copy will be forwarded to the Trading Standards Authority). The yellow copy will be returned to the exhibitor and the blue copy to the haulier.
- All goats (except kids) should have a negative CAE test within the last 12 months and never previously had a positive test. CAE certificate of dam to be produced for kids.
