

RYEDALE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY- RULES & PRIVACY POLICY

GENERAL RULES

The objects of the Society are to educate the public in matters of agriculture by promotion and exhibition for the benefit of those involved and for the purpose of raising farming standards in the District of Ryedale and other Districts of North Yorkshire. The Society will not conduct the Show for profit and any surplus monies accruing will be carried forward to improve and increase the scope and layout of the following and subsequent Shows which will be carried out in line with these objectives.

The safety of persons on the Showground is of major concern to the Society. Precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present have been taken. As the Show is held on an agricultural field, everyone must take reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents. All persons must obey the instructions of the Society's stewards, officials and staff and comply with any published safety instructions.

Ryedale Show and its Committee will not be responsible for any loss, damage or expenses incurred to any person, exhibit or property during the Show from whatever cause. Every exhibitor shall indemnify the Ryedale Show against all claims that arise through the presence on the Showground of himself, employees, stock or otherwise. All exhibits are at the sole risk of the exhibitor.

All dogs must be kept on leads and be under proper control at all times.

No refunds will be given due to adverse weather conditions.

EXHIBITOR RULES

Any exhibitor knowingly giving a false or incorrect certificate shall forfeit any prize money and be liable to be debarred from exhibiting at the Society's show in any future year.

By making an entry, the exhibitor gives consent to their personal data being retained and shared with relevant bodies in accordance to the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) May 2018. The Society shall not retain personal data for longer than necessary and will destroy records in accordance with the GDPR and Society policies. By making an entry in any classes specifically for children, the parent of the child consents to personal data relating to child being shared with relevant bodies.

For the purposes of definition, the term "Show Area" shall be the area that was administered by the Pickering Urban, Pickering Rural, Kirkbymoorside Rural and Helmsley Rural District Councils.

Entry forms which are not completed correctly will not be accepted.

Ryedale Show reserves the right to cancel, limit, divide or amalgamate any class.

Ryedale Show reserves the right to appoint a replacement judge whenever it is deemed necessary.

Ryedale Show reserves the right to refuse entry.

The decision of the Judge is final.

Objections to entries or awards must be made in writing to the Secretary and must be made on Show Day, accompanied by a deposit of £10 which will be refunded if the objection is sustained. All disputes shall be referred to the Ryedale Show Committee whose decision is final.

The Committee reserve the right to remove any objectionable or noisy competitors or unruly exhibitors, attendants or spectators.

All persons in charge of stock, implements etc brought onto the Showground shall be subject to the orders, regulations and rules of the Committee or Officers appointed by them. Any disputes arising must be referred to the Show Committee, who will be authorised to remove persons refusing to conform to the rules from the Showground, as also their stock.

All cups/trophies remain the property of the Ryedale Show and the acceptance of a cup/trophy by the holder is a guarantee that the cup/trophy will be returned to the Secretary, free of cost, ONE MONTH prior to the following Show.

Any exhibitor who does not produce an entrance ticket must pay the relevant admission.

ANIMALS

- All stock must have been bona-fide the property on the Exhibitor at the time of entry, unless otherwise provided.
- No stock will be allowed to compete in more than one class except where otherwise stated.
- No animal suffering from a contagious disease may be brought onto the Showground.
- In the event of a Veterinary Surgeon advising the removal of any animal from the Show, his decision shall be final and immediately complied with.
- Grand Parade – cattle to be paraded first and to be presented with cups with horses to follow. No livestock to be removed from the Showground before 4pm.

PRIVACY POLICY

We are extremely concerned to protect your privacy and confidentiality. We understand that all Members and Exhibitors are quite rightly concerned to know that their data will not be used for any purpose unintended by them and will not fall into the hands of a third party. Our policy is both specific and strict. If you think our policy falls short of your expectations or that we are failing to abide by our policy, do please tell us.

We do not share, or sell, or disclose to a third party, any personally identifiable information collected. If this policy should change in the future, then we shall provide notification in advance and the opportunity for all users to indicate whether or not they would prefer that we do not provide the information to third parties as proposed.

Here is a list of the information we collect, and why it is necessary to collect it:

Basic identification and contact information such as your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address and dates of birth where applicable.

This information is used:

- to provide you with the services which you request;
- to maintain our accounts;
- for billing;
- to enable us to answer your enquiries;
- for verifying your identity for security purposes;
- for marketing our services and products;

This information will be used exclusively for the purpose for which you have provided it. Information is disclosed to third parties only where the third party concerned qualifies in whatever way the Society and other affiliated Breed Societies require. The information is kept on a bespoke, commercially available database specifically built for Show administration. Anti-virus and other computer security systems are in place.

Disclosure to Government and their agencies.

We are subject to the law like everyone else. We may be required to give information to legal authorities if they so request or if they have the proper authorisation such as a search warrant or court order.

Information request

At any time, you may review or update the personally identifiable information that we hold about you, by contacting us. To better safeguard your information, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections to your information.

Retention of records

Personal data will not be kept any longer than deemed necessary.
