Show Rules and Regulations

1. Disclaimer of Liability

Neither the Society nor any of its officers or servants will be responsible for anything that may happen to exhibitors, their servants or any other person, or their respective property or animals, or to any exhibit at the show, and it shall be considered a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and that he/she shall be considered to indemnify the Society against any legal proceedings, claims or demands in respect thereof. Exhibitors acknowledge that they are taking part in a risk sport and agreed to having achieved a level of competency. In addition, they agree that they understand it is their responsibility to insure their property, animals and livestock (this includes infected animals) whilst on the Showground and hold full public liability insurance.

2. All competitors must have current public liability/third-party insurance cover. Please ensure you carry relevant documents with you as Stewards may require to see evidence.
3. Dogs must be on a lead at all times whilst on the Showground. Regrettably dogs, other than assistance dogs, are not permitted in the cattle lines at any time.
4. To be eligible to make entries at Members rates an exhibitor must have paid their annual subscription by 1st April of the current year.
5. The Society will not be responsible for any error in the schedule or programme or for any entry being made in the wrong class.
6. In all classes the Society reserves the right to accept or reject the entry of any person and also the right to withdraw any prizes awarded.
7. The Society reserve the right to cancel or amalgamate a class if, in their opinion, there are insufficient entries.
8. Substitutions will be accepted on Show Day up to 8.00am in the same class as that in which the original exhibit was entered providing the Secretary or Chief Cattle Steward are notified in writing.
9. Prize money will not be awarded if, in the opinion of the judges, there is insufficient merit.
10. A judge's decision shall be final. Any competitor intending to object must notify the Secretary in writing, together with a deposit of £50, returnable if the objection is upheld.
11. All cups must be returned to the Society by 1st August of the year following the award.

Trophies cannot be collected before 1.00pm except in exceptional circumstances.

Prize Money

All prize winners will be awarded a prize money voucher by the Steward. Please complete and return to the Secretary. Payment will be made by bank transfer. All vouchers must be redeemed by 30 September.

Cattle: Show Rules and Regulations

- Legal requirements for the Movement of Cattle: Pre movement TB test certificates are required. Herds from low-risk areas may need to do post-movement testing, please check with APHA for your own CPH/testing interval.
- Exhibitors must provide a completed full cattle passport for all animals. Guidance can be obtained from the BCMS helpline (0345 050 1234). Barcoded labels are available from the Livestock Chief Steward. Owners must record animal movements in their On-Farm register or Movement Book within 36 hours.
- Entry to the Showground will not be allowed unless a valid TB Pre-Movement Test certificate, for all Cattle, is available. All animals must be from herds which are free from restrictions imposed under the Tuberculosis Order 1964 and the Brucellosis Order 1978.
- Cattle may arrive at the Showground, Friday between 3.00pm and 8.00pm, and Saturday 7.00am to 8.00am. Exhibits may not be removed until after the Grand Parade.
- For all queries, please contact:
Ben Robinson - ben.robinson@newmerfarm.co.uk, 07903 513196, or
Katie Miles - k-miles@hotmail.co.uk, 07711 042184
- Cattle must originate from premises which are free from movement restrictions imposed under the Animal Health Act 1981 at the date of entry. An animal cannot be exhibited if, after entry, the herd to which it belongs is subject to such restrictions.
- Cows and heifers which have not calved before the Show will be judged along with the animals 'in calf', those which have calved will be judged along with the animals 'in milk'.
- Animals which calve, show evidence of calving or show signs of abnormal discharge, whilst on the Showground, must be placed in the approved isolation area pending their removal from the Showground and will not be allowed to compete. If required by the Divisional Veterinary Manager, a full range of samples will be taken and the animal, along with other animals from the same premises, may be required to return home to isolation accommodation.
- Any artificial contrivance or device found on or proved to have been used on an animal at any time whilst on the Showground, either for preventing the flow of milk or any other improper purpose (such as sealing of teats) will disqualify that animal from the competition and the instigator or the owner of the animal may be prohibited from entering livestock in any future competition as the Society sees fit. The Society reserves the right to have all animals inspected by the Hon. Veterinary Officer, either prior to, during or after judging. Show Stewards reserve the right to examine any animal udder at any time during the Show. Tampering will result in immediate expulsion and the relevant breed societies will be informed.

10. All cattle exhibited must have been led prior to the Show and be double haltered or have nose rings/clips for safety.
11. The Society reserves the right to remove any animal from the Showground if they cannot be led safely.
12. All animals must have an adult in attendance at all times.
13. All exhibitors will be asked to declare that there have been no known incidents of notifiable disease, including TB, amongst their livestock in the last 2 years.
14. Covered open sided accommodation will be provided free for all cattle along with approximately ½ bale of straw per animal.
15. Exhibitors are required to make their own arrangements for feed stuffs.
16. Judging will commence from 9.00am.
17. All classes are open unless otherwise stated.
18. Exhibitor/Staff facilities: Bar & refreshments will be available between 5.30pm & 9.00pm on Friday 5 September and a breakfast roll will be available on the morning of the Show from the Livestock Area
19. An adult must accompany all young handlers in the Grand Parade.
20. The Society reserve the right to restrict the number of entries in accordance with the available penning facilities.
21. Substitutions will be accepted on Show Day up to 8.00am in the same class as that in which the original exhibit was entered providing the Secretary or Chief Cattle Steward are notified in writing.
22. Exhibitors may only enter an animal in one section.
23. Exhibitors must provide sufficient handlers for the number of animals exhibited.
24. Unauthorised movement of animals during the Show will not be allowed.
25. Bulls: Exhibitors should make themselves familiar with HSE regulations:
 - two people, one using a bull pole attached to the nose ring and the other using a rope or chain attached to the halter or head chain via the nose ring.
 - two people both using ropes or chains, one rope/chain attached to the halter the other attached directly to the nose ring or via the nose ring to the halter.
 - one person using a bull pole attached to the bull's nose ring and a rope/chain attached to the halter or head chain via the nose ring with a competent person standing by to assist.
 - Any bull going into the Grand Parade MUST be held by two adults, including double halter and nose ring.
