Burke Perpetual Challenge Trophies

Sir Roland Burke

Painted by Sir Oswald Hornby Joseph Birley in 1950

The Burke Perpetual Challenge Trophies were introduced as a new award at the RASE Royal Show in 1951. The Burke Trophies mark the occasion of Sir Roland Burke's retirement in 1950 after twenty years of office.

Extracted from the Journal of the Royal Agricultural Society of England 1951:

'The Council accepted with gratitude three challenge cups from Sir Roland Burke (formerly Honorary Director) for competitions annually at the Royal Show. The trophies, offered in perpetuity, were awarded at the 1951 Cambridge Show as follows: (a) for the best two champions of a breed – one male and one female in the beef cattle section ; (b) for the best two champions of a breed – one male and one female in the dairy section; (c) for the best New Implement.'

Today, more than seventy years since the first presentation, the Burke Trophies remain the most prestigious cattle awards within UK farming.

Each year, a host agricultural society is chosen by RASE to be the host of the Burke Trophies. Exhibitors compete for the trophies at the host society's annual agricultural show.

The Burke Perpetual Challenge Trophy Judges

Mr William McLaren      Netherton Aberdeen Angus, Perthshire, Scotland (Beef)

Internationally renowned Aberdeen Angus breeder and owner of the Netherton Herd William, is the fourth generation of the McLaren family which has dedicated over 100 years to breeding pedigree Aberdeen Angus cattle.

William is also Past President of the Aberdeen Angus Cattle Society and is currently General Secretary of the World Angus Secretariat.

The Netherton herd needs no introduction being one of the most influential prefix's of our time, having sold genetics in to every continent, they were the first to weigh cattle in 1958 and the first to sell the entire adult portion of their herd in one to Highland Wagyu under the Mohmar prefix, which William now runs alongside Netherton.

William has judged across the world in many different breeds, including Perth & Stirling Bull Sales, the Royal Highland Show, Sydney, Agribition and Farmfair International to name a few.

Mrs Wendy Young      Churchroyd Dairy Shorthorns, West Riding, Yorkshire (Dairy)

Past President of the Dairy Shorthorn Cattle Society, Wendy currently sits on the breed society council. Wendy runs her cattle preparation business Clippaholics, working across the full spectrum of breeds.

Wendy has judged multiple breeds including at the New Zealand Dairy Event.

The Churchroyd prefix has become a household name within Shorthorn breeding circles with successes at major shows, chart-topping proven bulls in AI and record-breaking type classification scores. Indeed, the herd recently featured in Cowsmopolitan (the international multi dairy breed magazine) for the unique achievement of two consecutive generations of 97-point home-bred cows.
