Carcase Section

Further information regarding collection will be distributed to exhibitors following entry.

The Driffield Agricultural Society hope to display as many carcasses as possible in the glazed chilled display unit situated in the livestock area.

We aim to make the competition an active promotion of quality local meats and to provide an understanding of what makes a quality carcass.

Should a carcass be unsaleable, the Exhibitor must pay the slaughtering charges. In the event of entries exceeding exhibiting facilities, the Society reserves the right not to exhibit non-prize winners.

Entry fee: £18.00 (£3 entry fee and £15 killing fee all to be paid on entry)

Neither the Society nor any of its officers or employees shall in any way be responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstance whatsoever) to visitors, exhibitors or anyone attending the show, or to any exhibit or any other property brought into the showground, or for anything else in connection with or arising out of, or attributable to the Society's Show.
2. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or arising from any animal or article exhibited by him, and for its description as given in the catalogue, and shall indemnify the Secretary and Society Officers and Servants against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
3. The Society reserves the absolute right to refuse or reject, unconditionally, any entry.
4. Any person making false entry, or who has given a false certificate, shall forfeit any unpaid prize money and shall be disqualified from exhibiting at the Society's show.
5. All stock must be bona-fide property of the exhibitor at the time of entry.
6. It's a condition of entry, that all stock exhibited is sufficiently trained and under control of a competent handler. Bulls must have two handlers. All exhibitors, whilst in the show rings should wear a white coat, or as prescribed by the Breed Society.
7. Exhibitors in the Cattle and Grand Parade are requested to note that, for safety reasons, children of and under the age of 16 years, will not be allowed to lead animals or accompany exhibitors into the cattle or main rings whilst the parades are taking place unless accompanied by an adult.
8. All distance for radius classes shall be measured on the Ordnance Survey Map.
9. In no case will the Society or its committee be responsible for any loss from accident or mistake or damage to any exhibits or packages, though every care will be taken for their safety.
10. The ages of exhibits will be calculated to the date fixed for the closing of entries unless stated otherwise.
11. If required, Certificates of the ages of animals entered must be delivered to the Secretary. The attention is drawn to the provision of the state health schemes in relation to MV and CAE and their responsibility to observe such rules and regulations. For its part, the Society will provide separate accommodation and guidelines to ensure that necessary controls are taken to preserve accredited status of the animals shown at the show.
12. A condition of entry is that you MUST comply with all current Animal Health and Welfare legislation regarding identification disease control and movements.

TO ENTER - All entries are to be made via the Driffield Show online booking system. All livestock and carcass entries CLOSE ON 12TH JUNE, 2026. NO ENTRY WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR JUDGING UNLESS IT APPEARS IN THE CATALOGUE. All entry fees to be paid at the time of entry and no entry will be accepted without payment of the prescribed fees.

JUDGING - In all sections, the Judge's decision is final.

13. In any of the classes for livestock, where 7 entries are actually exhibited a fourth prize may be given.
14. The Committee reserves the right to split any livestock class, should the number of entries warrant it.
15. Where there are not more than 2 exhibitors in any class, such class may be cancelled, and where there are not more than 4 entries in and class the prize money can be reduced by one third.
16. The Judges will be empowered to withhold prize money when they are of the opinion that there is not sufficient merit in the stock exhibited to justify an award.
17. The Society reserves the right to withhold payment of prize money to any prize-winning exhibitor in the cattle, horses, ponies and heavy horses not parading in the Grand Parade.
18. There will be a Grand Parade in the main ring of all prize winners of the horse and cattle sections. Any animals that are judged may leave the Showground at 4.00pm except the prize winners, which will parade in the grand parade.
19. In the Livestock section, objections to be laid with the Secretary within half an hour of the class being judged, with a deposit of £20. Deposits will be returned if the objection is upheld.
20. If any dispute shall arise, or any objection made by an exhibitor or any other person, such dispute or objection shall be settled by the Committee, who may decide upon such evidence as may appear satisfactory to them, and their decision in all matters shall be final and conclusive and not subject to appeal. The Society also reserves the right to refuse or cancel entries or classes, and prohibit exhibition of entries, as the Committee may deem expedient.
21. If any persons who have entered stock or other items and failed to exhibit the same shall forfeit all fee and charges paid on making their entries
