REGULATIONS FOR ALL PLOUGHMEN

1. SAFETY POLICY

All competitors must adhere to the NADAS policy at all times. Failure to do so will leave to disqualification.

2. PLOUGHING ON THE SITE

a) The plough must not be in the ground on the site other than the competitors plot. Penalty – disqualification.
b) When not ploughing, all mounted ploughs must be lowered to the ground.
c) If any tractor is left unattended, the keys must be taken out and the cab locked.

3. PLOTS

a) The competitor is allowed to clear the plot of straw, stones and other debris but must not have any help to do so. Clearing of stubble is not allowed and will be penalised.
b) All ploughmen must start at the same end, as designated by the organising committee.

4. TRACTORS ON SITE

After completion of ploughing, all tractors must be taken directly back to the Marshalling Area and must not be driven around the site. Failure to do so will be penalised.

5. TIES

Should there be a tie for a place in any class, then the 'countback' system will be used by the scrutineers.

6. ADMISSION TO SITE

Trucks carrying equipment together with the truck driver will be admitted free of charge. Trucks and cars must be parked in the appropriate parking places.

7. INSURANCE

All competitors must hold adequate insurance including Third Party Liability Insurance.

The Society and Landowner accept no responsibility for loss of, or damage to, property on the day. Cars parked at the owner's risk.

HEALTH & SAFETY

All entrants are reminded that current health and safety rules require that a suitable assessment of the risks to the health and safety of all persons is made by the operator of any undertaking. This means that entrants should have considered this, especially in relation to spectators and officials who may not be as familiar with ploughing techniques and tractor usage.
