LIVESTOCK CONDITIONS AND REGULATIONS 2026

A. SHOW AND EXHIBITION RULES

1. The Society shall hold a show annually on such day or days as the Trustees shall determine.
2. The Trustees shall have absolute discretion as to the classes of exhibits, the persons eligible to compete in any class, the prize money to be offered, the level of entry fees, the conditions of entry and exhibition, and all other matters connected with the Show.
3. The Trustees shall approve the schedule of prize money for each year.
4. Animals which are subject to restrictions under the Animal Health Act 1981 (as amended) or the Animal and Animal Products (Import and Export) (England and Wales) regulations 2000 (as amended) will not be allowed onto the showground.
5. Every exhibitor or competitor is requested to examine carefully the Terms and Regulations, as they will be held responsible for the correctness of their entry form. An exhibitor's entry may be disqualified should they have failed to give any of the information asked for on an entry form. The competitor's award may be cancelled if they fail to prove the accuracy of the details on the entry form. If an exhibitor desires their animal to compete for any special prize offered, they must notify this on the entry form where requested to do so.
6. Every exhibit must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor at the time of entry. In the event of the death of an exhibitor between the date of entry and the date of the show, the executors of the deceased will be deemed to be the exhibitor.
7. The term exhibitor will include persons taking part in any competition or display arranged by the Society. The term owner is the owner of any animal involved in any such competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the showground.
8. Exhibitors are not permitted to enter any animals in any class, which is to be judged by a person who has or has had a financial interest in the animal. The onus of complying with this regulation rests entirely on the exhibitor.

NEWBURY SHOW
19 & 20 SEPTEMBER 2026
SHEEP SCHEDULE

9. Substitution of Judges - the Society reserves the right to substitute other judges for those named in the schedule or make additional appointments. Where time permits exhibitors will be informed of the change via email.

10. Cancellation of classes - the Trustees reserves the right to cancel or amalgamate any classes which in their opinion are insufficiently filled. Exhibitors will be notified of these classes by email however if classes are amalgamated there will be no entry money refunded should they choose not to attend the class.

B. EXHIBITOR'S RISK AND RESPONSIBILITY

1. Neither the Society nor any of its officers shall be in any way responsible or accountable for anything that may happen (from any cause or circumstances whatsoever) to Exhibitors or their stock attendants, or to any exhibit, or any vehicle conveying any exhibit, or any crate, package, Show-case or other article or thing containing or relating to any exhibit, or any other property brought into the showground or for anything else in connection with, or arising out of, or attributable to, the Society's show.

2. Each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage done to or occasioned by, or rising from any animal or article exhibited by said persons, and for its description as given in the catalogue, and shall indemnify the Society against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto. Each exhibitor of Livestock shall be responsible for payment to the Society for costs incurred as and for liquidated damages for any animal sent for exhibition which has to be placed in isolation because it is showing signs or symptoms of contagious or infectious disease, or any form of disease likely to prove dangerous to other animals.

3. Exhibitors shall be responsible for the behaviour of their stock attendants and for the consequences of any misconduct of such attendants. Stock attendants entering the judging rings and the main arena must be dressed to comply with the bio-security regulations. Any fine imposed upon an exhibitor, or a person employed by them, for infringing the regulations or disobedience to the order of the stewards, shall be recoverable from the exhibitor as a debt due to the Society and, until such payment, shall debar such exhibitor from exhibiting at any future Show of the Society.

4. Exhibitors should be satisfied in all cases that the correct and appropriate restraining method and equipment is provided for use by animal handlers.

5. Exclusion and limitation of liability and indemnity

(a) The Society shall not be responsible to any entrant for any form of economic loss whether direct or indirect and howsoever caused.

(b) The Society shall not be responsible to any person whatsoever while upon the Society's showground for any form of economic loss whether direct or indirect and howsoever caused.

(c) All entrants shall indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against all actions, suits, expense and claim made against the Society on account of or in respect of the negligence or breach of contract of the entrant.

(d) The Trustees requires all entrants and Exhibitors to insure themselves and their exhibits against all liabilities both to the Society and to all other persons using the Society's showground unless the secretary gives written dispensation.

6. The right is reserved to require an appropriate certificate of insurance to be produced for inspection by the Society on demand.

7. It is the owner's responsibility to ensure appropriate insurance is in place to cover attendance at a Show of this type.

C. ENTRIES/FEES

1. Entries for competitions shall be made on the official online booking system (Showing Scene) by the dates as printed in the schedule. Entries available on our website: www.newburyshowground.co.uk

2. Paper entries will not be accepted.

3. Livestock stalls/pens are allocated to size of the Society Building, once this has been exceeded, Exhibitors will be put on a waiting list at the decision of the Society.

4. No entry will be accepted unless accompanied by the appropriate fee.

5. Entry fees will only be refunded in the event of cancellation of all classes, or a ministry order prohibiting the exhibition of animals at the show.

6. The Society in its absolute discretion may refuse any entry or cancel any entry already accepted, may decline at any stage to admit any proposed exhibit, or order the removal of or remove, at the expense and risk of the exhibitor, any exhibit already delivered. Whenever under this regulation an entry is refused or cancelled, or any exhibit is refused admission or removed, the fees paid for such entry may, at the discretion of the Society, be refunded, and, if refunded, shall be accepted by the exhibitor or intending exhibitor in full satisfaction of all claims against the Society.

7. An entrant shall mean any person who enters any competition or class or exhibits any item of any description during the show.

NEWBURY SHOW
19 & 20 SEPTEMBER 2026
SHEEP SCHEDULE

8. If an exhibitor or competitor fails, when called upon by the stewards or Trustees, to prove the correctness of their entry form to their satisfaction, including ear tag and records check the entry may be disqualified and any award made to it cancelled.

9. Any entrant or their stock attendants refusing to obey an order from the stewards shall not be allowed to compete.

10. No refunds of entry fees or stall or penning fees will be made if the show has to be cancelled for any reason beyond the control of the Society.

11. Any exhibitor withdrawing an exhibit after the closing date of entries will not be entitled to have entry fees, penning or stall fees refunded.

D. GENERAL RULES

1. Dress - all stock attendants must be turned out to an acceptable standard. Stock attendants in charge of Sheep and Pigs must wear white coats and suitable footwear when leading animals in the ring during judging and parades. Stock attendants in charge of Cattle must wear white coats and footwear capable of being disinfected whilst in the animal area and deemed suitable for handling Livestock. Smoking by persons in charge of stock during judging or on parade is strictly prohibited.

E. CATALOGUE LISTINGS

1. All Livestock will be listed in the catalogue under the name of the exhibitor.

F. PRIZES/TROPHIES – SEE RESPECTIVE SECTIONS/CLASSES FOR VALUE OF PRIZES OFFERED

1. Withholding prizes – a judge may withhold any prize or prizes if, in their opinion, an exhibit is of insufficient merit.

2. Championship prizes - first and second prize winners must, where eligible, compete for the championship prizes, or they will be liable to the forfeiture of their class prizes.

3. Forfeiture of prizes – the Society, on the report of a steward, shall have power, on the infringement of any of these or other prescribed regulations or conditions, to subject the exhibitor to a fine of £25 and to the forfeiture of any prize to which they may be entitled (in addition to all other consequences attaching to such infringement).

4. Prize money will be cash vouchers.

5. Prize winners must present their cash voucher before 31st October 2026 after which date payment will be stopped and the prize money forfeited.

6. All exhibits and all persons in charge of the same will be subject to the Orders, Regulations and Rules of the Society. The stewards shall have the power to remove from the showground the stock or property belonging to, and to cancel the admission ticket of, any exhibitor who shall infringe any of the regulations or conditions of the show, or who shall refuse to comply with any instructions given by the stewards, without any responsibility attaching to the stewards of the Society in consequence of such removal.

7. No steward will be allowed to show their own animal before the judge; neither shall they be allowed in the judging ring whilst the class in which they have an exhibit is being judged.

8. The handler of any animal will be asked to remove it from the ring if, in the opinion of the steward, they are unable to control the animal safely. Livestock with unstable or aggressive temperament should not be brought to the showground. When in the opinion of the Society's officers, senior stewards, the police, the health and safety executive or other competent authority, an animal's behaviour poses an immediate threat to life and limb of people in its immediate vicinity, the Society reserves the right to mitigate such threat in such manner as they see fit, without any obligation to make good any loss or damage suffered as consequence of enacting this regulation.

9. No person will be allowed to fix any placard, or to take down any placard in the Showground, without permission of the stewards.

10. No trading, from cars or vans, in the lorry park will be permitted.

11. No objections shall be made or taken to any award or decision of the judges except on the ground that the same is not in accordance with the conditions governing the class or entry in respect of which it was given or made. Any objection authorised by this rule and any matters not provided for by these rules or the general rules of the Society shall be referred to the Trustees, whose decision shall be final. Any person lodging an objection shall at the same time deposit the sum of £50 with the secretary, which shall be forfeited if, in the opinion of the Trustees, such objection shall be considered frivolous. All objections must be made in writing and must be received by the secretary within 2 hours of completion of relevant breed.

12. All prize-winning animals in the Cattle and Sheep sections must parade in the grand parade on both days of the Show.

13. No stock attendants shall be allowed to lead more than one animal at a time. Bulls must have 2 handlers and other cattle must have a minimum of one handler each. Sheep and goat handlers may lead 2 animals. All handlers must be fully equipped to handle the exhibit(s); the owner of any animal found to be loose on the Showground is liable to a £25 on the spot fine from the stewards.

NEWBURY SHOW

SHEEP SCHEDULE

14. Photographic rights - competitors and Exhibitors give permission for any photographic and/or film or TV footage taken of persons or livestock taking part in Newbury and District Agricultural Society events to be used and published in any media whatsoever for editorial purposes, press information or advertising by or on behalf of Newbury and District Agricultural Society and/or official sponsors of Newbury and District Agricultural Society.

15. The Society reserves the right to publish, through any media, the entrants and winners' names and addresses supplied on the entry form.

16. As an entrant we will store the data you provide us with on computer and we will use said data for marketing, statistical and analytical purposes. You will receive communications and from time to time we will let you know about our work and promotions.

17. Welfare of animals - the legislation which came into force in January 2007 lays out rules covering the movement of animals. If you move livestock as part of your business, then you will be affected. Under the new rules everyone transporting animals commercially must comply. Please see www.DEFRA.gov.uk for further details.

18. Responsibility - neither the Newbury & District Agricultural Society, nor any of its officers, shall be in any way responsible or accountable for anything that may happen from any infectious or contagious disease, or any other cause, or circumstance whatever to Exhibitors or their stock attendants, or to any animal or article exhibited or property brought onto the showground; or otherwise for anything else in connection with, or arising out of or attributable to, the Newbury & District Agricultural Society/Newbury Show, or these or any other conditions or regulations described in relation thereto; each exhibitor shall be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury, or damage done to, or occasioned by, or arising from, any animal or article exhibited by him, including any infectious or contagious disease, and shall indemnify the Newbury Show (Newbury & District Agricultural Society) against all legal or other proceedings in regard hereto.

19. Public liability - all Livestock Exhibitors should ensure they have adequate public liability insurance cover. (Suggested minimum of £5 million)

20. Accuracy of catalogue - Newbury Show (Newbury & District Agricultural Society) will not be responsible for any inaccuracy in any pedigree inserted in the livestock catalogue, though every care will be taken to ensure the accuracy of all particulars printed therein.

21. Judges - if, for any reason, a judge is unable to attend the show or is more than 30 minutes late, the Show reserves the right to appoint a replacement. Every effort will be made to inform exhibitors of the change.

The judges are instructed as follows:

(a) not to award any prize or commendation to any animal that contravenes the welfare regulations.

(b) to draw the attention of the stewards to any exhibit that has been improperly prepared for exhibition or is wrongly entered.

(c) if a judge has presented before them an animal which they have bred, owned or had an interest in they shall place all the other animals in the class and call in the Show's referee to place the animal in question.

(d) to award in every class, in addition to the prize money, award rosettes at the judge's discretion providing the exhibit is of sufficient merit.

(e) in no case, shall a prize be awarded unless the judge deems the entry to have sufficient merit, and should the judge consider the exhibits unworthy of the highest prizes offered, it shall be in their power to award a lower prize.

(f) immediately after judging each class, to sign the judge's award sheet, noting any disqualifications.

G. VETERINARY INSPECTION AND TREATMENT

1. The veterinary inspectors of the Society will carry out spot checks of Livestock throughout the Show. Those animals originating directly from another member state will be checked as required by the provision of chapter ii of the council directive 90/425/EEC. All health documentation must be presented and the animals adequately identifiable.

2. The Society's inspectors or those appointed by DEFRA are authorised to exclude or place in isolation any animals which, in their opinion, are exhibiting any symptoms of contagious or infectious disease, or any other condition which they consider warrants its exclusion or whose identity cannot be adequately established. In such an event a certificate recording the findings of the inspector shall be handed to the person in charge of the rejected animal. Each exhibitor of livestock shall be responsible for payment to the Society for costs incurred as and for liquidated damages for any animal sent for exhibition which has to be placed in isolation because it is showing signs or symptoms of contagious or infectious disease, or any form of disease likely to prove dangerous to other animals. Exhibitors are responsible for ensuring in the event of the area from which entries are to be conveyed to the show being declared a movement prohibited area that such entries are not sent for exhibition.

NEWBURY SHOW
19 & 20 SEPTEMBER 2026
SHEEP SCHEDULE

3. Veterinary treatment of animals whilst at the show. Antibiotics, inhibitory substances, and other prescription only medicines are banned at the showground unless they are administered under the supervision of the Society's veterinary surgeons.
4. Veterinary emergency treatment. It is a condition of entry that the Society's veterinary officers may on their own authority, give to any animal such emergency treatment as they may consider appropriate in the event that the owner or their representative cannot immediately be found.
5. Veterinary charges. Exhibitors will be required to reimburse the Society for the full cost of treatment, services and certification administered by the Society's veterinary officers attending animals. Accounts will be rendered after the show.
6. Any owner of an animal, which may have been suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or which develops such a disease whilst on the showground is liable to compensate the Society for all expenses incurred in connection with any claims resulting from such diseases. The Society's veterinary officers are authorised to refuse permission for any animal to be admitted to, or to have to be removed from, the showground, any animals affected with contagious or infectious disease or with disease, which, in their opinion, was likely to prove dangerous to other animals, to be put into the isolation unit. Concealment of any disease will render the exhibitor liable to disqualification.
7. The certificate of the Chief Veterinary Officer, whether as to age or soundness, shall be required only in cases where the judges are in doubt, or where the stewards may consider it necessary. The decision of the Chief Veterinary Officer in such cases shall be final and conclusive; and in case it shall be against the animal to which a prize has been awarded, such animals shall be disqualified from receiving such prize.
8. The Society reserves the right to test any livestock exhibits for the presence of hormones or illegal substances, which may affect the behavior, or performance of the animal in the ring. Refusal to submit a sample will be dealt with by the Society at their discretion.
9. All Cattle arriving at the Showground must have a pre movement TB test all areas, including 3 and 4 yearly.

H. HEALTH & SAFETY

1. Health and Safety Regulations at Agricultural Shows – Exhibitors are reminded that they must conform to the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and other Health and Safety legislation. Exhibitors must also comply with the disability and discrimination act; the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005; the Health Act 2006 incorporating the smoke free legislation. In accordance with the health & safety legislation all Livestock Exhibitors/stock attendants must now comply with the above.
2. In the case of led Cattle/Sheep/Pigs it is imperative that exhibitors/stockpersons are aware of their obligations to the safety of the general public at all times whilst on the Showground and observe orders from officials or stewards in respect of crossing points etc.
3. Livestock Exhibitors are reminded that the Show environment can be upsetting for Livestock, even those of normally placid temperament. Livestock with unstable or aggressive temperament must not be brought to the Showground. When in the opinion of the Society's officers, the police, the health & safety executive or other competent authority an animal's behavior poses an immediate threat to life and limb of people in its immediate vicinity the Society reserves the right to instruct an authorised person to mitigate such threat in such manner as shall to that authorised person seem appropriate, not excluding the humane destruction of the said animal. By exhibiting at the Newbury Show Exhibitors are deemed to authorise such person or persons to so act. Exhibitors by exhibiting at the Newbury Show acknowledge and agree that the Society, its employees, and agents shall not be liable for any such matters as are referred to in this regulation and in particular but not by way of limitation that the Society shall not be liable for any loss or damage (whether direct or indirect or consequential) suffered as a consequence of the Society instructing such person or persons as are referred to above. Further, each exhibitor by exhibiting at the Newbury Show hereby indemnifies and agrees to indemnify the Society, its officers, agents and employees from and against any and all liability, claims and costs which result there from.
4. All "live in" vehicles (horseboxes, wagons, caravans) must be parked at least 5 meters apart. Please follow the instructions of a parking attendant. Please indicate on your entry form the number of people staying on site overnight.
5. Children on the Showground. Please be aware that during the build-up of the Newbury Show, the Showground is a working site and can be a dangerous environment for children. Please ensure you are aware of where your children are and that you keep them under close observation at all times.
6. Electrical appliances - all electrical appliances that are intended to be used within the Livestock lines must have a current safety test certificate and have verification of such inspection. The Society reserves the right to confiscate and return after the Show any equipment considered to be non-compliant. Nominated officials will carry out safety inspections of electrical

I. ANIMAL WELFARE - Biosecurity at the Newbury Show - Animal Gatherings Order 2004 DEFRA regulations at time of printing.

1. The Newbury Show is to be licensed by DEFRA and has a biosecurity officer whose job is to make sure that the rules are followed.

2. Please note that the Showground is not a Central Point Recording Centre (CPRC) Exhibitors are therefore required to record the individual tag numbers down on their AML1 document. The movements license must be fully completed prior to arrival.

3. Exhibitors must follow the instructions given to them by the show organisers and the biosecurity officer. In particular, before leaving the animal area, Exhibitors must cleanse and disinfect their footwear if it is contaminated with animal excreta and safely dispose of disposable clothing or change any contaminated clothing. Prior to leaving their stock, Exhibitors must also clear all bedding, used feed or animal excreta from the walkway beside their animals, dispose of this in the correct manner and clean and disinfect any equipment prior to removal from the animal area.

J. ADMISSION OF LIVESTOCK

1. Please do not use satellite navigation (sat nav) equipment to find your way to the Showground. It takes no account of our traffic management plan and you will be directed to the wrong place.
