The Lincolnshire Show Equine Information and Regulations

Horse of the Year Show Qualifiers

Please ensure that the Exhibitor, Owner, Rider and Horse all have HOYS User IDs
If you do not have a User ID please contact HOYS directly on 02476 858 205 or email them on entries@grandstand.co.uk

Please note for all HOYS classes the entry fee includes a £20.00 Horse of the Year Show contribution.

Equine Passports

Exhibitors are required under DEFRA regulations to carry the Official Identity Document (passport) for every horse or pony when competing or travelling to the Show.

Competitors are reminded that the passport must be in the name of the legal owner within 30 days of ownership and must be correctly registered with the relevant breed society, studbook, or ID issuing authority, depending on the type of horse or pony.

Spot checks will be carried out at the Lincolnshire Show, as well as at qualifying shows and by breed societies, to ensure compliance. Exhibitors must always have passports available for inspection.

Please also ensure that you are correctly registered with the appropriate Horse Society before making your entry. If you are unsure, please contact the society directly.

Stabling

All stables must be booked and paid for in advance via Showing Scene. Numbers are limited; early booking is recommended.

- Stables are allocated on arrival by the Stable Manager and cannot be used until officially assigned.
- Stables may not be sub-let, shared, or transferred; they are for the competitor who reserved them only.

NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ALLOWED

The Lincolnshire Agricultural Society has endeavored to ensure the correctness of the particulars printed but will not accept responsibility for any error or mistakes which may arise.

- Exhibitors must provide their own bedding, feed, water buckets, and mucking out equipment. Any damage will be charged to the hirer.
- Stallions must be declared at booking; dedicated stallion boxes will be allocated if available.
- Horses may not be stabled in horseboxes or trailers.
- All stables must be cleared and tidied before departure.
- Exhibitors must present passports and vaccination records to the Stable Manager before stabling. Spot checks may be carried out.
- H&M Haylage bales and shavings will be available for purchase on site.

Stabling is managed to ensure the safety, hygiene, and welfare of all horses at the Show.

Farrier
During the Show, the Farrier on call will be Scott Sykes, Available on 07595 323307

Veterinary Team

All equine health and welfare matters during the Lincolnshire Show are overseen by the Show Veterinary Team from Hill & Phelan Veterinary Surgeons, who are on site and available 24 hours a day throughout the duration of the Show.

In the event of illness, injury or any welfare concern, exhibitors must contact the Veterinary Team immediately. The emergency veterinary contact number is clearly displayed in the Equine Secretaries Office with the Stable Manager.

No veterinary treatment should be administered that contravenes current competition rules. Any serious incident, infectious disease concern or horse requiring isolation must be reported without delay.

The Society reserves the right to require veterinary examination of any horse on the Showground and to take appropriate action in the interests of animal welfare and biosecurity.

Animal Health Vaccination Requirements
All equines attending the Lincolnshire Show must be vaccinated against Equine Influenza in accordance with current British Equestrian and national governing body guidelines.

NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ALLOWED

The Lincolnshire Agricultural Society has endeavored to ensure the correctness of the particulars printed but will not accept responsibility for any error or mistakes which may arise.

The vaccination course must be completed as follows:

- The first and second vaccinations must be administered 21–60 days apart.
- A third (first booster) vaccination must be given within 6 months + 21 days of the second vaccination.
- Thereafter, booster vaccinations must be administered at intervals of no more than 12 months.
- Additionally, a booster must have been given within 6 months + 21 days prior to the first day of the Show.
- No equine may enter the showground or compete if it has received an Equine Influenza vaccination within 7 days prior to arrival.

Foals should commence their vaccination programme at 6 months of age.
All vaccinations must be recorded in the equine passport and be available for inspection at any time.
Tetanus vaccination is strongly recommended in line with current veterinary advice.
The Society reserves the right to amend these requirements in accordance with updated guidance from British Equestrian or other relevant governing bodies.

Strangles Biosecurity Requirements
Strangles is a highly contagious bacterial disease of horses. The Lincolnshire Show takes biosecurity seriously and all exhibitors are expected to take appropriate precautions to protect the health and welfare of all equines attending.

Before Arrival

- Horses must not travel to the Show if they are unwell or showing clinical signs consistent with strangles, including raised temperature, nasal discharge, swollen lymph nodes or abscesses.
- Any horse that has been in contact with a confirmed or suspected case of strangles within the previous 21–28 days must not attend unless cleared by a veterinary surgeon.
- Exhibitors are strongly advised to monitor their horse's temperature for several days prior to travel.

During the Show

- Direct nose-to-nose contact between horses should be avoided.
- Water buckets, feed bowls, tack and equipment must not be shared between horses.

NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE ALLOWED

The Lincolnshire Agricultural Society has endeavored to ensure the correctness of the particulars printed but will not accept responsibility for any error or mistakes which may arise.

- Good hygiene practices must be observed at all times, including regular hand sanitising and the use of clean equipment.
- Any horse becoming unwell whilst on site must be reported immediately to the Show Veterinary Officer and isolated as directed.

The Society reserves the right to refuse entry or require removal of any horse showing signs of infectious disease. The cooperation of all exhibitors is essential in maintaining high standards of equine health and biosecurity at the Lincolnshire Show.

Prohibited Substances & Medication Policy

The Lincolnshire Agricultural Society (LAS) strictly prohibits the administration of tranquillisers, sedatives, or any substances that may affect a horse's performance or cause unnatural behaviour in the Show Ring.

Any exhibitor, or their representative, found to have administered or allowed the administration of such substances will be dealt with at the discretion of the LAS. In addition, the matter will be referred to the relevant Breed Society or governing organisation.

Exhibitors are not permitted to bring tranquillisers or sedatives onto the Showground. The LAS reserves the right for the Honorary Show Veterinary Officer to take samples from any exhibited animal for analysis if deemed necessary.

Malpractice

Any exhibitor attempting to obtain a prize by false declaration or unlawful means will have all awards cancelled and may be disqualified from future Shows.
